Good Feeding Station.

J. F. Reynolds, president of the Oakland Meat Company, is in Reno for a few days. He is feeding a big bunch of cattle on the Truckee Meadows. "This point," says Mr. Reynolds, "is the best along the main line of the road for wintering beef cattle on account of the purity of the water, excellence of the feed and the mildness of the seasons."

Plays No Favorites.

A Japanese love bird, who is a sort of political boss in the Owl's aviary, is an interesting critter. He does not seem to have a bone in his body and squirms through the bars of the "gilded cage" with ease. Paying a visit to all the other birds, he returns and breaks into his happy home again.

SAVE AN EXAMINATION FEE

Not Indulging in High Hope.

The University team has completed its training and is now anxiously awaiting the arrival of the Nevada team for the game next Thursday. Coach Holmes has put in his best licks to bring the University team to a point where it can play first-class ball, and he believes he has not far missed his mark.

The team is well-trained and coached, and ought to be able to stand a stiff contest. The men will today and tomorrow take a little exercise on the campus, just enough to keep in condition. The Nevada team will be here tomorrow. It is reported to be much heavier than the University. The betting about town is in favor of Nevada, many making bets that the score will be as high as 30 to 0. — Tribune.

THE FIREMEN'S MASQUERADE

This Evening the Great Event Will Take Place.

This is the thirtieth and last call. You will miss half your life if you do not attend the masquerade ball this evening in Senator Flanagan's new warehouse. Everybody who is anybody will be present. No objectionable characters will be admitted. A committee on inspection will require all masquerades to be raised at the door. By objectionable don't mean poor, palm caulked or uninitiated into the smart set. This will be a democratic gathering, although the best society is not barred, nor will any of the latter refrain from being present because of fear of coming into contact with social inferiors.

The Firemen's annual ball is the one occasion in Reno where everybody in the city, within the pale of respectability, meets upon an equality.

The costumes promise to be rich and original. A costume with a large stock is at the Riverside.

There will be many funny maskers and several groups of eight.

Plenty of room for dancers and spectators. The hall is three times as large as any other in the State. The floor is in perfect condition and the spacious room will be brilliantly illuminated and comfortably heated. Free transportation to the scene of the festivities.

Through the Murmuring Pines of the Sierras.

The Journal will be opened by its readers this morning too late to convince them that they should take a day off and ride through the murmuring pines of the Sierras to the fair little city of Beckwith, away up at the head of the Sierra Valley.

Regular California hospitality will be awaiting those who make the trip. Arrangements are all made for a grand celebration of the opening of the Boca & Loyaltan railroad to traffic.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

SECOND DAY'S REPORT

Pedagogues Take a Turn at Going to School Themselves Awhile.

Prof. Heaton opened the second day's session by saying that the intellect is not the only thing to be educated. A trained mind may be turned to good or evil—to the benefit of society or to its hurt.

Emotions furnish the impulse to action and the emotions should be educated. The emotions are the mainspring to patriotism and religion.

To be afraid of the dark is inherited from ages back, when to leave the primitive camp fire was to perish in the dark. To fight is also an inherited instinct, brought down from the times when the weak tribes were wiped off the face of the earth by the strong. Don't whip both of the boys who fight. Punish the one who is at fault.

Teachers should seek to change brute force into moral force.

To educate the emotions brings out pathos, humor, beauty—train the children to see these things and appreciate them. Develop the sense of the beautiful by good pictures, but do not use pictures that are tantalizingly above the children's heads.

Literature will also appeal to the emotions.

Mathematics and science sharpen the intellect; literature and art should ennoble and refine the emotions.

A picture should speak to children. The Reno teachers then sang a two-part song, "O'er the Moonlit Sea." Recalling a recall, one teacher "gave it away" that she had hired certain people to enquire us. Maybe there were others.

At 11 o'clock the Wadsworth cameras suffered for the teachers of the institute grouped themselves and were photographed.

Prof. Heaton then talked again on composition, letter writing and the necessity of a good audience to get the best efforts of pupils. Don't ask for compositions, then take them home, mark the errors and hand back to pupils. Let the children read their effusions. They have a right to an audience.

Give children something interesting to write about. Don't stand off with the air of taking aim at your school and say threateningly: "Write or I Fire!"—fire a zero, you know, which is a worse missile than a bullet sometimes, because it wounds all one's friends and relatives as well as one's self.

The morning thought was—criticize mercifully, and only the obvious errors, always remembering that when a pupil has done the best he could that is all any one can do.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Miss Bliven gave an illustrated lesson in phonics in which the small lads and maidens showed wonderful promptness and knowledge.

Prof. Bray then showed Miss Calne's children why they should breathe pure air, and how to keep it pure. Using a lighted candle, he made it plain to all the little folks how oxygen is necessary for boys and girls and candles.

Miss Stiner showed some very good work in language.

Prof. Krall gave us a talk illustrating music as a fine art.

Prof. Heaton says teaching is also a fine art. He advocates every teacher having an avocation as well as the vocation of teaching. You may dissect and label so much for pupils in pictures and in literature that you have only shreds and never find the soul.

We also learned the difference between reflection and shadow. Most of us thought we knew "what before, but we didn't."

The ladies of the Wadsworth Reading Club entertained the teachers from 4 to 7. Pleasures are showered upon us at every turn.

The class exercises Tuesday afternoon, given by Mrs. Wodbury, were very pleasing. Prof. Heaton at the close said, "Where did you learn to teach?" Compliments, well earned and deserved, flowed in thick and fast.

A Journal Reader Wants to Invest.

Following is a sample of the numerous letters arriving at this office, indicative not only of the extensive circulation of The Journal, but of the attention that this newly-awakened mining district is receiving in the world of investment, partly through the stress laid upon mining resources by this paper:

Gentlemen—Please give me information regarding any good mining prospects for sale, bond or lease. N. J. Nelson, Box 608, Boulder, Col.

A HANDSOME PRESENT.

A beautiful line of elegant hand painted China at Golden's Jewelry Store. Call and examine our stock, the finest on the coast.

Write-up of a Reno Company.

The Burton Company is a corporation called the International Electric Mining Company of "Reno, Nevada, and Boston, Massachusetts." The authorized capital is $500,000, divided into 100,000 preferred shares, and 400,000 common shares.

The plant of the company is located at Reno, where they own the old Beck smelter and have extensive works with modern machinery. The company owns a number of patented properties in Trinity and Arabia that show great value.

Several of these mines have been great producers in the past. The values are both silver and gold. It is believed by many mining men who have examined the mines that they have a good future.—Silver State.

ALL AROUND THE STATE

A Few Gleaned Paragraphs of Nevada News.

This year's potato shipments from Dayton to San Francisco will aggregate 2,500 tons.

Thomas Chagwidden and Miss Belle Ledy were married at Virginia City Monday evening.

B. F. Bewley, a resident of Lyon county since 1860, died in Mason Valley November 22d.

It was reported last evening that an habitude of the tenderloin had attempted to commit suicide.

A. L. Spencer of Nevada is taking treatment at a private hospital in the city.—Salt Lake Tribune.

P. H. Peterson has sold his Carson Valley ranch and together with his family, has moved into Carson.

Andrew Saulian, a pioneer resident of Virginia City, died at that place yesterday of miner's consumption.

The Ballarat school has closed. Miss Irene Reynolds, its teacher, made a plucky fight for its maintenance, but the school population was too slim.

While the barkeeper was asleep in a Tuscarora saloon, some one cleaned out the till containing $50 and two checks. The owner is still looking for the checks.

Joseph Kendall, native of Cornwall, England, died at the Elko hospital Sunday of miner's consumption. He was at one time a member of the Tuscarora Miners' Union.

Parsee, the Prospector, Makes a Suggestion.

Parsee, the Prospector, has another kick coming. He objects to the blocking of Virginia street, Reno's principal thoroughfare, by railway trains.

Some time ago it was suggested that a foot bridge be built over the track. The motion met with no second, and Parsee now suggests a subway viaduct. He says it should be built before Virginia street is paved. The Journal backs him up in the proposition.

Testing the Ores.

Prof. Jackson is testing the ore at Wedekind City and will go to San Francisco in a few days to try the mill ordered by the Sparks Milling Company. Great care is being taken to see that the mill ordered will be the best adapted for working these ores.

THE RENO CYCLE CO

RENO HIGH SCHOOL ELEVEN DEPARTS

Husky Young Fellows Depart for Gardnerville to Do or Die.

The V. & T. local yesterday took twenty-six high school students to Carson. From that point they were conveyed by team to Gardnerville, where eleven of the members of the party will line up against the Gardnerville high school this afternoon in a game of football that promises to be an interesting one, with the odds greatly in favor of the Reno team.

Among the party are a number of young co-eds who will wave the red and purple and vociferously root for the Riverside boys during the progress of the game.

Following is the line-up for Reno: Beaudine, center; Ryland and Dilling, guards; Shirk and Knox, tackles; Hibbard and Scott, ends; Leonard and Kline, half backs; Meffley, full back; Kornmayer, quarterback; Harrington, Mihilis and McCarty, substitutes.

Artistic Exhibit.

The display window in the Porteous Decorative Company's store is filled with a handsome assortment of platinum prints from photographs of famous paintings. They would make very suitable holiday presents.

The Last Chance at Mental Pabulum.

This is the day when everybody indulges in a square meal. The poor printers have saved up enough to eat on and, in order to have time to digest their unaccustomed rich food, they will go on a strike and refuse to issue a paper Friday morning from this office. Read The Journal over twice this morning, advertisements and all. It will be your last intellectual treat for forty-eight hours.

WHY IS IT?

THAT THE NOVELTY DRY GOODS STORE has increased their trade from month to month since they began to do business with the people of Washoe County and vicinity? Because they buy the best and sell at the lowest margin of profits. Why can they sell cheaper than any other dry goods house? FIRST, They do not have to hire help; SECOND, Their expenses are very low for the amount of business they are doing; THIRD, They discount all their bills, which is quite an item of gain in one year; FOURTH, They do not add the freight charges to their goods, which is quite a per cent in favor of their customers; FIFTH, They do not want to get rich in a few years—only to make a nice living and treat our customers right every time. In a short time they will have on display a full line of holiday goods. Look for our ad in The Journal, and show windows from the first to the ninth.

THANKSGIVING.

BY proclaimed announcement from the President of the United States, seconded by the governors of the different commonwealths, this is a day set apart for the American people to give praise and thanks to the Most High for the blessings He has bestowed upon us as individuals and as a nation. The custom of appointing such a day originated with the early colonists of Massachusetts and continued without intermission in all of the New England colonies and States as local festivals and almost exclusively in that section, until after the middle of the last century when it was made a national holiday. In former years it was known in the south and the then, west as the "Yankee Christmas," and was observed only in the New England, and to a lesser extent, in some of the Middle States. The prejudice against it on account of its Puritan origin, has, however, died away and, notwithstanding, or rather perhaps because of the growth of liberal religious sentiment, it is recognized today by the people of all sections, as a day, if not consecrated to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, at least as an occasion for recognition of His power and acknowledgement of His goodness and mercy to the people of the earth.

Apart from its religious phase, origin and observance, it is a welcome addition to the days of festivity and relaxation, of which there are too few enjoyed by the American people; the Fourth of July, Christmas and New Years being the only others that are observed with such degree of unanimity and zest as should feature the gala days of a people devoted, as we are, to perhaps too close attention to the affairs of everyday life. As a people we are so absorbed in the routine of business that it requires strong appeals to sentiment and concerted joyousness to so swerve us from the ruts of mental or physical toil as to enable us to fully enjoy the few days of festivity that are afforded by the anniversaries that are celebrated among us.

So let us make the most of the occasion. Let us give thanks to the Lord for the blessings we enjoy. Let us not criticize His acts, and in those things wherein we cannot discern the good intended us, let us remember that "He doeth all things well" and also that He "moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform," and so refrain from cavilling at things we do not understand but which perhaps may prove his choicest blessings in disguise.

If your means will afford you turkey, enjoy it and be thankful. If your financial limit is beef or mutton remember that those meats are more digestible than gobbler and thank the Lord that you will escape dyspepsia. Be thankful anyhow.

THE SWEARING PARSON.

DR. W. S. RAINSFORD, the rector of St. George's Church, in New York, who sometime ago achieved the sobriquet of "the swearing parson" has been larrupping Tammany from his pulpit ever since the election, as have also several other preachers of more or less celebrity. That's all right as far as it goes. In the language of Admiral Schley, and perhaps also of Parson Rainsford, "give 'em h—l boys!" But why don't some of those good and wordy brethren also jump the machine at Philadelphia which can double discount the Tammany manipulators, besides giving them cards and spades, in the game of dirty and corrupt politics? Those good and pious parsons should deal out even-handed justice and not speak and act in such a way as to convince people that they are mere cheap John partisan politicians, who use their pulpits as their fair stands. In Philadelphia they not only vote their dogs under such humorous names as John Curly, Henry Black, George Shot, Samuel Spitz, etc.,—for the truth of which asperition we have the word of no less reliable a person than John Wannamaker. Nobody ever accused Tammany of such tricks as that, and the reverend brethren ought to inform themselves and also extend their field of labor to the city of Brotherly Love.

WILL THEY RETALIATE?

THERE is more interest now in President Roosevelt's administration than there has at any time since he took the oath of office. His announcement that he had asked and received the consent of all of the members of Mr. McKinley's cabinet to continue in their positions, at first, not only took away all anxiety, but the keenness of curiosity from the politicians. But his public activity has been along different lines from that of McKinley. He has won whatever prominence he has achieved in spite of politicians instead of by their assistance or connivance. He had served as Civil Service Commissioner where the basic idea was that fitness must be an essential for office, and he came to the presidency with the avowed intention of giving to the position the best there was in him. He had no political debts to pay. There were federal positions to be filled in the south and he has gone out of his party to fill them when the proper material could not be found within it. Not only has this been done, but in many instances to the discomfiture of those in the party who believe in the spoils theory.

More than this he has gone into the territory of powerful party bosses and applied a similar practice. In New York, he has refused to heed Platt's dictation and removed a man for collector of the port whom McKinley had refused to remove. There are other instances when he has gone counter to the plans and requests of Republican Senators in making appointments, and much to their chagrin and disappointment, but unquestionably for the good of the service.

But what is to be the outcome of this policy? It is not altogether an innovation, for President Cleveland followed it and soon had his administration handicapped, by a Senate in open hostility to his general plans and policy. Garfield did it and the result is memorable. It is fair to presume, that having started in upon such a course deliberately, Roosevelt will cling to it. Whether the Senators will bear or forbear and "acquiesce," or whether they will resent such defiance of "senatorial courtesy" and use every opportunity to make it unpleasant for the President as he has made it for them, is what prompts curiosity on the part of those who are watching affairs at Washington from a distance.

ONE of the most astonishing disclosures of the census is that there are 1,800,000 more males than females in the population of the United States. That is to say that of every 1,000 of the American people 512 are of the masculine and only 488 of the female sex. According to those figures there should be, by parity of reasoning, of every thousand persons of either sex, 24 more old maids than old bachelors among Uncle Sam's nephews and nieces.

RED wine is said to be King Edward's favorite tipple, which causes the Salt Lake Herald to sarcastically remark that we may look for an increase of the consumption of that article by Anglo-manics, and that if his Majesty, in a moment of insanity, should drink a bottle of red ink there are people in this country who would fill up on the writing fluid and try to look as if they liked it.

What Is Doing in Tonopah.

T. R. Hofer has been given a contract by the Tonopah Mining Company of Nevada to build a telephone line between Sodaville and Tonopah, a distance of 60 miles. Mr. Hofer expects to have the line completed in 50 days.

The Salt Lake Company operating the Clifford group of mines here made the second payment of the $12,000 last week and appointed F. J. Siebert General Manager, who arrived Monday from Salt Lake City and has assumed charge.

The Knight of Pythias will organize a lodge soon.

Owing to the fact that operations in Tonopah have been confined, almost exclusively, to the ore croppings proper, has given birth to the idea that the mines now being operated constitute the entire possibilities of the camp. Future explorations in all portions of the district will demonstrate that this opinion is erroneous and that the great wealth now exposed is but index to the fabulous riches that will ultimately be unfolded in this great porphyry belt.

For more than one thousand feet continuously along the Mizpah extremely high grade ore is being extracted showing a continuation of rich ore unprecedented in the history of mining. It must also be borne in mind that the rich ore being extracted constitutes but a meager proportion of the wealth of this ledge. Thousands of tons of ore that will work $50 per ton is being piled up on the various dumps and it is this prodigious quantity of paying rock that insures a long and propitious future for Tonopah.—Tonopah Bonanza.

Wheelmen vs. Second Eleven.

This afternoon the Reno Wheelmen will meet the University second eleven on the Varsity gridiron. This will probably be the last game of football in Reno this season. The game will take place at 2 o'clock sharp. It promises to be a closely contested.

Following is the line-up:—

Winners of Races at Oakland Yesterday.

Following is the result of the races at Oakland yesterday as received over the Owl leased wire and reported in the "Overnight"

First race (5-8). Botany, 2; Marella, Bendara, 15. Time, 1:04.
Second race (3-4). Hungarian, 3-2; Midnight Chimes, 2; King Dells, 3. Time, 1:18.
Third race (one mile). El Oriente, 2-5; Tony Lepping, 3; Nellie Forest, 3-2. Time, 1:47 3-4.
Fourth race (7-8). Miss Mae Ray, 1; Maresa, 1. Time, 1:33.
Fifth race (11-16). Mechanus, 1; Sombrero, 3-2; Hilee, 7. Time, 1:09.
Sixth race (1 mile, 100 yds.) Lode-star, 2; Herculean, 3-2; Bonnie Lassak, 3-2. Time, 1:52 3-4.

Sweep the Streets.

If Reno cannot give an open air party on Commercial Row for lack of funds, at least the town might sweep the street occasionally. Every wandering breeze that blows gathers dissipated animal matter and scatters it over the sidewalk and through open doors.

Watch for Bulletins.

This afternoon the last Varsity football game takes place on the campus of the University of Utah. Although The Journal will not contain a full write-up of the game until Saturday morning, it has a special correspondent on the scene and will post bulletins. Be on the lookout for them.

Decision Rendered.

The Jury in the case of Tetzan vs. the N-C-O Company brought in a verdict for the defendant. He was allowed $30 a head for the stock killed and costs. The plaintiff recovers only about the amount offered him in settlement by the company.

Knights Will Joust.

One feature of the proposed street fair will probably be a tournament. The knights of old in suits of mail will contend for prizes in feats of horsemanship. S. C. Foster, who is a well-known polo player, will interest himself in this branch of the entertainment.

Membership Increased.

A business meeting of the Reno Wheelmen's Club was held last evening. Six new members were received and a committee was appointed to take charge of the Colonial Ball to be given New Year's evening.

The Washoe Lunch Counter and bar have built up an immense trade by serving only the best to their patrons. Messrs. Clausen & Block are experienced caterers.

Financial Talk No. 5.

Chicago has a Penny Savings Society which was organized for the benefit of the little school children. While the deposits consist of a few pennies, the accounts are necessarily small, but very numerous. The savings individually amount to very little, but the children are early in life imbued with the thought of economy and thrift. The following is a statement of the work accomplished by the Chicago Penny Savings Society Year ending June 30, 1898, $19,140; year ending June 30, 1899, $33,690, year ending June 30, 1900, $71,793. William C. Hillster, acting president, says that it is operated entirely on a philanthropic basis and supported by voluntary contributions. There are only two salaried officials, young ladies, at the office in the Schiller building. The system is in operation only in half the schools in Chicago, yet the amount of money deposited by the children last year averaged thirty cents for every child in the Chicago district, and sixty cents per capita for all the children in the schools in which the Penny Savings Society is operated. The weight of last year's savings was thirty tons of American pennies, an enormous mass of money for the little ones to put by in the banks within one year. It will be noticed that the increase between the amount deposited in 1898 and 1899 was 70 per cent. But between 1899 and the year just ended the increase of the amount deposited was considerably more than 100 per cent.—Herald.

What an example these little children set many parents. The Phoenix has a plan whereby we can accommodate old and young, large or small, rich or poor. He who saves today is a capitalist tomorrow. Begin to save at once!

We loan money at moderate rates of interest on a definite contract to be returned in monthly installments. We receive deposits in either small or large amounts to be paid monthly in regular or irregular payments or deposited in one lump at one time on which deposits we guarantee and pay fixed rates of interest according to the plan accepted from 5 to 10 per cent per annum. Deposits received from $3 up.

Note our strong board of directors: A. A. Watkins, vice-president W. W. Montague & Company, and president San Francisco Board of Trade; Charles R. Bishop, vice-president Bank of California; S. Prentiss Smith, assistant Cashier Bank of California; George C. Boardman, general agent Aetna Fire Insurance Company, and director San Francisco Savings Union; Charles E. Ladd, Ladd & Tilton, bankers of Portland, Oregon; Gavin McNab, attorney at law, San Francisco; Clarence Grant, late Building and Loan Commissioner, Montana.

Reno payments may be made at the Washoe County Bank.
